

Directions to Red Hill House

From Chester City centre

Travel out of Chester over the Grosvenor Bridge towards North Wales. Follow the road markings to Saltney at the main Overleigh roundabout (4th exit), onto Hough Green. Approximately 1 mile along this road you will see St Mark's Church on your left (before the railway bridge). Take the second left after the church onto Shrewsbury Way, then first left onto Donnington Way and finally right into Hope Street. Red Hill House is on your left. Visitor parking is available in front of the main entrance.

By Bus from Chester City centre

From the Central Bus Station (behind the Town Hall: Hunter Street/Princess Street area), take any one of the following buses: 3; 3a; 4; 4a; 11; 11a; 17; 41, travelling towards/through Saltney. Exit the bus at the Hough Green/St Mark's Road bus stop (outside the Spar). Turn right off the bus, down the hill, turning left onto Hope Street (through bollards, no vehicle access). Red Hill House is less than 200 metres along this street on the left, and is clearly marked. It is no more than 3-4 minutes walk from the bus stop.

From the M56 / M53

Join the M53 towards Chester from the M56. Stay on the M53 south, as it becomes the A55 and continue on this to the exit marked Wrexham and Chester (A483). Turn right heading into Chester until the major Overleigh roundabout, taking the second exit towards Saltney. Approximately 1 mile along this road you will see a church on your left (before the railway bridge). Take the second left after the church onto Shrewsbury Way, then first left onto Donnington Way, and finally right into Hope Street. Red Hill House is on your left. Visitor parking is available in front of the main entrance.

From North Wales

Proceed along the A55 until junction of the A5104 (Broughton). Turn left heading through Broughton, past Aerospace, towards Chester for about 5 miles when you will come into Saltney. Continue towards Chester, and after you pass under the railway bridge, immediately turn right onto Shrewsbury Way, then first left onto Donnington Way and finally right into Hope Street. Red Hill House is on your left. Visitor parking is available in front of the main entrance.

On Arrival

All visitors must sign in at the main reception desk for Health & Safety reasons. Whoever your appointment is with will then come to reception to collect you and take you to their consulting room for your appointment.
